

ARCHDIOCESE OF LIVERPOOL

INSPECTION REPORT

ST BEDE'S CATHOLIC JUNIOR SCHOOL

WIDNES

Inspection Date Wednesday 22 October 2014

Inspectors Rev D Melly
Mrs J Farrimond Mrs D Martin

Unique Reference Number 111371

Inspection carried out under Section 48 of the Education Acts 2005 and 2011

Type of School Catholic Junior

Age range of pupils 7-11

Number on roll 272

Chair of Governors Mrs P Ruth

Headteacher Mrs A Paget

School address Appleton Village
Widnes
Cheshire
WA8 6EL

Telephone number 0151 424 3386

E-mail address head.stbedesjunior@halton-borough.gov.uk

Date of last inspection 29 January 2008

Introduction

This inspection was carried out under Section 48 of the Education Acts 2005 and 2011

The report of the inspection is produced for the Archbishop of Liverpool (Code of Canon Law 804 and 806) and for the governors of the school.

The inspectors are members of the Christian Education Department and their associates approved by the Archbishop of Liverpool for this purpose.

Information about this school

- St Bede's school is a larger than average sized Catholic Junior School situated in Widnes and serving the parishes of St Bede's, St. Raphael's and St. Pius.
- There are 272 children on roll of whom 260 are baptised Catholic, 7 come other Christian denominations, and 5 from other faith or religious traditions.
- There are 13 full time and four part-time teachers of whom 12 teach Religious Education. Seven of the teachers who teach Religious Education have a suitable qualification in Religious Education. A further four teachers are in the process of obtaining the Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies. Eleven teachers are baptised Catholic.
- Since the last inspection the new Come and See programme has been well embedded and given great prominence.

Key for inspection grades

Grade 1	Outstanding
Grade 2	Good
Grade 3	Requires Improvement
Grade 4	Inadequate

© 2014 copyright – Archdiocese of Liverpool. This document may be reproduced in whole or in part for non-commercial educational purposes, provided that the information quoted is reproduced without adaptation and the source and date of publication are stated.

Further copies of this report are obtainable from the school.

Overall effectiveness:

St Bede's is an outstanding school in providing Catholic Education.

Inspection Judgements

The extent to which the pupils contribute to and benefit from the Catholic life of the school.

- The extent to which the pupils contribute to and benefit from the Catholic life of the school is outstanding.
- Pupils know and understand the school's Mission Statement and understand the part they play within it. They were involved in its evaluation recently and in producing a child friendly mission statement.
- Pupils have an outstanding sense of belonging to the school community and value and respect others. They feel listened to and that what they suggest is acted on.
- Pupils are encouraged to take on roles of responsibility in the school and wider community by being members of the school council, being prefects, play leaders, table leaders, anti-bullying ambassadors and by leading Collective Worship.
- Pupils are actively involved in developing the Catholic character of the school by living out the Mission Statement especially when they show care for each other and when they lead and participate in Collective Worship.
- Pupils benefit from participation in away days and retreat activities when they go on residential to London, Llandudno, Beeston, Pioneer Activity Centre and Spain. There they are encouraged to reflect on their experiences.
- Pupils have an excellent sense of right and wrong and apply this in their personal relationships. They take an increasing responsibility for themselves and their actions.
- Education for pastoral care and personal relationships has fostered positive attitudes in pupils.
- They praise and acknowledge the contribution of others. They show a readiness to embrace and celebrate their lived experiences.
- Pupils embrace opportunities to meet their potential in all aspects of school life.
- Pupils are involved in service to the local communities, the immediate neighbourhood served by the school and the wider community when they are involved in the local cluster of schools, in the Innovation Enterprise Alliance, when they sing with the Irish Guards, are involved with Ready Steady Downs, support CAFOD and Nugent Care and organise the knitting of garments for the 'fish and chip' babies. They have close links with schools in China and India. They are always involved in fundraising for various charities including the local food bank. They show respect and understanding of other faiths and religions.

How well pupils achieve and enjoy their learning in Religious Education

- Pupils' achievements and enjoyment in Religious Education is outstanding.
- Their attainment in Religious Education is outstanding.
- They make outstanding progress in relation to their starting points and capabilities.
- On entry to school children have a knowledge and understanding of the Catholic faith that is expected of their age and stage of development.
- There is no difference in performance between pupils of different gender.
- Outcomes for pupils with additional or special needs are good.
- Analysis of assessments undertaken provides evidence of pupils generally attaining appropriate levels for their age and stage of development with many exceeding.

- Pupils are becoming increasingly more religiously literate. Their knowledge, understanding and skills are developing appropriate to their age or capacity.
- They are developing the skills that enable them to reflect spiritually, think ethically and theologically and are becoming more aware of the demands of religious commitment in everyday life.
- Pupils' engagement in and enjoyment of their learning is outstanding as shown by their interest, enthusiasm and behaviour.
- Pupils are encouraged to work independently and collaboratively.
- Pupils are keen to learn and improve their knowledge, understanding and skills as they become independent learners.

How well pupils respond to and participate in Collective Worship

- Pupils' response to and participation in Collective Worship is outstanding.
- They show great interest, respond very well and actively participate in Collective Worship.
- They act with reverence and are keen to participate in a variety of gatherings.
- Pupils' knowledge of prayer and liturgy is increasing.
- They are becoming familiar with a variety of prayer styles. They appreciate and are open to the Word of God in the scriptures.
- They sing very joyfully and with actions, reflect in silence and join in community prayers appropriately and with confidence. The highlight of the day was the Rejoice in Song, which was a very moving experience.
- They are becoming increasingly more confident preparing and leading worship.

The quality of teaching and how purposeful learning is in Religious Education

- The quality of teaching and purposeful learning in Religious Education is outstanding.
- It is consistently effective in ensuring that pupils are interested and engaged and make outstanding progress.
- Teachers display excellent subject knowledge and deploy a range of teaching styles to motivate and inspire pupils.
- Enthusiastic and energetic teaching encourages pupils' enjoyment of and enthusiasm for Religious Education.
- Teachers take into account pupils' prior learning extremely effectively. They ensure tasks are differentiated when planning so that the work consolidates, builds on and extends their knowledge and understanding.
- Teachers provide opportunities for pupils to work independently and collaboratively.
- Outstanding use is made of time and resources including other adults, Information and Communication Technology (including video clips and PowerPoint) and photographs to maximise learning.
- Pupils are informed of their progress both orally and through marking. They are given opportunities to assess their own learning. Evidence of 'next steps' was observed within marking. Effort and achievement are celebrated. The assessment of pupils' work in Religious Education is outstanding.
- The school has outstanding assessment strategies which provide accurate and detailed information on the achievement of all the pupils.
- Teachers are able to identify how well pupils are achieving and tackle underachievement.

The extent to which the Religious Education Curriculum promotes pupils' learning

- The extent to which the Religious Education Curriculum promotes pupils' learning is outstanding.
- The curriculum is outstanding in meeting pupils' needs.
- The school using the Come and See programme recommended by the Archdiocese meets the requirements of the Curriculum Directory for Religious Education. Appropriate levels of the programme are being followed in different classes. This ensures complete Religious Education entitlement for each child and meets National and Archdiocesan requirements.
- Of the total curriculum time 10% is allocated to Religious Education. This fulfils the requirements of the Bishops of England and Wales.
- Planning ensures full coverage of the Religious Education programme. Imaginative and well planned strategies are deployed to enrich pupils' learning.
- The school implements new curriculum developments as appropriate.
- Enrichment activities such as the breakfast and after school clubs, and the various educational visits, have a positive impact on the curriculum.
- The Religious Education curriculum provides outstanding opportunities for pupils' spiritual, moral development and vocation.
- The curriculum is customised to meet the needs of groups and individuals.
- Children have explored the beliefs and values of other faiths and religions, including Judaism, Islam and Hinduism. This helps to promote tolerance and respect for those who think differently. They have made visits to other places of worship and have had visitors to school to share their faith and culture with the pupils.

The quality of Collective Worship provided by the school.

- The quality of Collective Worship provided by the school is outstanding. It reflects the Catholic character of the school and takes into account the variety of faith backgrounds among the pupils.
- Collective Worship has a very high profile and is central to the life of the school.
- Collective Worship plays a key part in meeting the spiritual needs of the pupils. Opportunities are provided to enable full, active and conscious participation of the whole school community.
- Children are enabled to pray formally and informally using a variety of prayer methods and styles.
- The Religious Education Subject Leader has provided opportunities for staff to develop their skills in planning, leading and evaluating Collective Worship.
- The teachers are providing the necessary resources and opportunities to help children to develop the skills necessary to plan, lead and participate in Collective Worship and to evaluate it effectively.
- Opportunities are provided for parents and carers to participate in a variety of celebrations of the Come and See programme and the Church's liturgical year.

How well leaders, governors and managers promote, monitor and evaluate the provision for the Catholic life of the school and plan and implement improvement to outcomes for pupils.

- Leaders, governors and managers are outstanding in promoting, monitoring and evaluating the provision for the Catholic life of the school and in the way they plan and implement improvement to outcomes for pupils. Governors are outstanding in their involvement in monitoring and have their own stickers to encourage the children.

- The Mission Statement is at the heart of all that is done in school. All who form part of the school community including parents, clergy, governors and children were involved in the recent review of the Mission Statement. Its aims and practical objectives direct and guide every aspect of school life and are a useful tool by which the school can evaluate its effectiveness.
- Leaders, governors and managers are outstanding in the way they use monitoring data to evaluate the schools performance and celebrate and plan future improvements.
- Outstanding opportunities are provided for the staff and pupils to play an active part in Catholic life and Mission of the school. They know, own and live out their Mission Statement.
- The Self Evaluation Document provides evidence of the school's monitoring, searching analysis and self challenge.
- Their analysis provides a basis to celebrate the school's strengths and outline areas for development. The SED is very detailed and accurate and obviously has a great impact on the Catholic life of the school.
- The school provides excellent induction and in-service training to enable staff to further understand the Church's mission in education and play their unique part in it. This is in-house, led by the Religious Education Subject Leader, and by training delivered by the Department for Christian Education. The Widnes cluster of schools always provides a day for teachers to develop their own spirituality each year.
- The quality of Collective Worship is a priority for the school and a great deal of effort has obviously been put into its development. It is effectively monitored and evaluated by leaders, governors and managers. An up to date policy is in place.
- Opportunities for spiritual and moral developments are provided for staff especially by using the Come and See for Yourself section of the programme, and the Pastoral Area cluster days.
- Leadership at all levels respects difference, values diversity and ensures equal opportunities for all.
- Prayer, worship and the liturgical life of the school reflects and respects the religious diversity within the school.
- There are very positive relationships at every level within the school.
- Governors are outstanding in fulfilling their responsibilities. They have effectively helped to shape the direction of the school through their enthusiastic sharing of their expertise.

How well leaders, governors and managers promote, monitor and evaluate the provision for the Religious Education of the school and plan and implement improvement to outcomes for pupils.

- Leaders, governors and managers are outstanding in promoting monitoring and evaluating the provision for the Religious Education of the school and in the way they plan and implement improvement to outcomes for pupils.
- Monitoring data is used effectively to evaluate the schools performance and plan for future improvements.
- There is a robust programme for the monitoring and evaluation cycle.
- Teaching and learning is monitored regularly and appropriate feedback and support given as necessary. Excellent practice is shared and celebrated.
- Continuing professional development opportunities are provided for all mostly by the Religious Education Subject Leader and the Department for Christian Education.
- Assessment information is collated and tracked by the Religious Education Subject Leader and shared with the leadership team, governors and parents.
- Formal assessment tasks are undertaken in line with Archdiocesan guidance.

- The Religious Education Subject Leader is outstanding in guiding Religious Education. She shows great enthusiasm for the Catholic life of the school and for the Religious Education curriculum and introduces new initiatives when appropriate. In the words of one of her fellow teachers “she is a supportive, helpful and inspirational”. Outstanding documentation guides and directs all staff in the delivery of the subject. This is updated as necessary.
- The Self Evaluation Document is rigorous in identifying targets, timescales and lines of accountability.
- Curriculum outlines are provided for parents who are consulted on different issues depending on the topic being covered.
- Achievement and effort are celebrated.

What the school needs to do to improve further?

- Enhance provision for curriculum Religious Education by:
 - implementing the plans in the SED to give staff opportunities to work together to become more competent in levelling work across the Key Stage;
 - ensuring that the quality of marking observed in the books is maintained.

INSPECTION JUDGEMENTS

OVERALL EFFECTIVENESS

How effective the school is in providing Catholic Education	1
---	---

OUTCOMES FOR PUPILS

How good outcomes are for individuals and groups of pupils
The extent to which pupils contribute to and benefit from the Catholic Life of the school	1
How well pupils achieve and enjoy their learning in Religious Education	1
How well pupils respond to and participate in the school's Collective Worship	1

PROVISION

How effective the provision is for Catholic Education
The quality of teaching and how purposeful learning is in Religious Education	1
The extent to which the Religious Education curriculum promotes pupils' learning	1
The quality of Collective Worship provided by the school	1

LEADERS AND MANAGERS

How effective leaders, governors and managers are in developing the Catholic Life of the School
How well leaders, governors and managers promote, monitor and evaluate the provision for the Catholic life of the school and plan and implement improvement to outcomes for pupils	1
How well leaders, governors and managers monitor and evaluate the provision for Religious Education and plan and implement improvement to outcomes for pupils	1

Key to judgements: Grade 1 is outstanding, Grade 2 good, Grade 3 requires improvement and Grade 4 inadequate