Inspection Judgements

The extent to which the pupils contribute to and benefit from the Catholic life of the school.

- The extent to which the pupils contribute to and benefit from the Catholic life of the school is outstanding. Exceptional opportunities nurture and support the children and their families.
- The school recognises the need to review and revise the Mission Statement and to involve all concerned, including the children in the process.
- Pupils have an outstanding sense of belonging to the school community and value and respect others. The display as you enter the school 'Living and Sharing our Faith' depicts this most creatively.
- Pupils are encouraged to take on roles of responsibility in the school and wider community especially by being members of the school council, being prefects, buddies and monitors. They also have their own notice board which informs pupils about interesting events in the local area. They work hard to raise money for particular things such as the friendship bench.
- Pupils are actively involved in developing the Catholic character of the school by such initiatives as the development and use of the spiritual garden, their involvement in Collective Worship and the way they treat each other.
- Pupils benefit greatly from participation in trips away and retreat activities.
- Pupils have an excellent sense of right and wrong and apply this in their personal relationships. They take an increasing responsibility for themselves and their actions.
- Education for pastoral care and personal relationships is truly outstanding and a real strength of the school. This has fostered very positive attitudes in pupils. The school is the first in the area to achieve the Mental Health Standards Bronze Award. This has helped give children a voice and enabled the provision of support services for them. Typically the school is now striving for the 'Silver Award'.
- Pupils praise and acknowledge the contribution of others. They show a readiness to embrace and celebrate their lived experiences.
- They embrace opportunities to meet their potential in all aspects of school life.
- Pupils are involved in service to the local faith and religious communities and the immediate neighbourhood served by the school in countless ways. They are very much involved in the life of the local care home where they read for the residents, play bingo with and sing to them. They also help with the various fayres held throughout the year by the vibrant Parent Teachers Association. They show respect and understanding of other faiths, religions and cultures.

- The Religious Education curriculum provides outstanding opportunities for pupils' spiritual, moral development and vocation.
- The curriculum is customised to meet the needs of groups and individuals.
- Children have explored the beliefs and values of other faiths and religions. This helps to promote tolerance and respect for those who think differently. Visitors from other faith and religious backgrounds have supported this development.

The quality of Collective Worship provided by the school.

- The quality of Collective Worship provided by the school is outstanding. It reflects the Catholic character of the school and takes into account the variety of faith backgrounds among the pupils.
- Collective Worship has a high profile and is central to the life of the school.
- Collective Worship plays a key part in meeting the spiritual needs of the pupils. Opportunities are provided to enable full, active and conscious participation of the whole school community.
- Children are enabled to pray formally and informally using a variety of prayer methods and styles.
- The school has provided opportunities for staff to develop the skills in planning, leading and evaluating Collective Worship. This has given them a confidence that in turn impacts on the manner in which the children's skills grow and develop.
- The teachers are providing the necessary resources and opportunities to help children to develop the skills necessary to plan, lead and participate in Collective Worship and to evaluate it effectively.
- Opportunities are provided for parents, carers the local and wider faith communities to participate in a variety of celebrations of the Come and See programme and the Church's liturgical year.

How well leaders, governors and managers promote, monitor and evaluate the provision for the Catholic life of the school and plan and implement improvement to outcomes for pupils.

- Leaders, governors and managers are outstanding in promoting monitoring and evaluating the provision for the Catholic life of the school and in the way they plan and implement improvement to outcomes for pupils.
- They are deeply committed to the Church's mission in education. This is reflected in the school's own Mission Statement which is depicted in a variety of ways e.g. photographically and artistically throughout the school. The school has marked the 'Year of Faith' with displays and 'footprints' around the school. The school clearly believes in 'living and sharing its faith and the motto 'live, laugh love' expresses well its vision.
- The high level of pastoral care is a key feature of this outstanding school and a real priority in the holistic development of the children.
- The Mission Statement itself now needs to be reviewed and revised. All who form part of the school community including parents, clergy, governors and children need to be involved in this development. At present the aims and practical objectives of the Mission Statement direct and guide every aspect of school life and are a useful tool by which the school can evaluate its effectiveness.
- Leaders, governors and managers are outstanding in the way they use monitoring data to evaluate the schools performance, celebrate, and plan future improvements.
- Outstanding opportunities are provided for the staff and pupils to play an active part in Catholic life and Mission of the school especially by the way they have deep care and concern for each other and in the way they participate in Collective Worship.
- The Self Evaluation Document provides evidence of the schools monitoring, searching analysis and self challenge.
- Their analysis provides a basis to celebrate the school's strengths and outlining areas for development. The Self Evaluation Document is very comprehensive and accurate. It is set out very creatively and obviously has a great impact on the life of the school.
- The school provides outstanding induction and in-service opportunities to enable staff to further understand the Church's Mission in Education. This helps them to play their unique part in it e.g. excellent use has been made of the in service provided by the Department for Christian Education.
- The quality of Collective Worship is a priority for the school. It is effectively monitored and evaluated by leaders, governors and managers. An up to date policy is in place.
- An extensive range of opportunities for spiritual and moral developments are provided for staff and pupils such as the development and use of the spiritual garden and working with key partners to support mental health. This is a real strength of the school and impacts greatly on the children and their families.
- Leadership at all levels respects difference, values diversity and ensures equal opportunities for all.
- Prayer, worship and the liturgical life of the school reflects and respects the religious diversity within the school.
- There are extremely positive relationships at every level within the school.
- Parents are consulted regularly and ways to further involve them in the life of the school are evolving.
